Commenting on Türk Telekom's results, Dr. Paul Doany, Chief Executive Officer of Türk Telekom, said:

"I am glad to announce that Türk Telekom has continued its steady growth in the first half of 2008. Compared to H1 revenues of 2007, this year we increased our consolidated revenues 12 percent to reach 5 billion TRY. I am also pleased to see that Türk Telekom's Net Income reached 1 billion TRY in the first half of 2008, with an improved second quarter profit of 627 million TRY. Our Operating Profit, which excludes the impacts of profits / (losses) from the movement in the Turkish Lira against the US Dollar, continued to show a double digit growth compared to the same period of 2007.

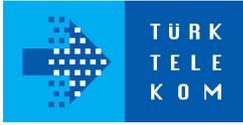

The economic environment continued to be difficult in the second quarter, especially for our ADSL business where the lack of computer sales is restricting our ability to grow. The Voice communication market continued to be very competitive, though our AVEA Mobile business was able to repeat its successful progress of the first quarter and added a further 0.5 million subscribers, meaning that they have now added 1.1 million subscribers in this year to date.

As a Company we are very encouraged by the recent statements from the Transportation Minister about reducing taxes on Broadband services which we consider will be a vital, and necessary, measure to help the Turkish market reach the levels of penetration seen in major European markets. In the Mobile market we are ready for both MNP and 3G which we see as further important stages in the development of the Mobile market.

As TT group, we are enhancing all our business lines including mobile, fixed and broadband lines with the support of convergence technologies. Once again we lead the next step to the technology this time by convergence.

To this end, in addition to traditional voice services together with new bundled offerings, we have recently launched videophone service. On mobile side, we offer mobile cellular services over 2G and 2.5G (EDGE), expanding to 3G shortly. At broadband ADSL/VDSL services, new corporate data services will follow soon. Following the music portal the video portal is now ready, in addition to education software ready for launch very soon throughout all the public schools.

Widespread and more convenient internet services are offered in WiFi hotspot services at about 1500 locations to expand further, which will allow the use of FMC services.

H1 2008 RESULTS

We are now trialling IPTV services with interactive voice/messaging/data services, supporting VOD/catch-up TV features.

Finally, Wi-Max is planned to be launched in underserved areas according to the pending Universal Service Fund decision after a successful tender process.

This will all serve to the purpose of offering fully integrated communication services ensuring full interactivity for the customers.

All these initiatives about products and services are crowned by domestic and international expansion of TT also through our IT companies."
